

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION between the Federal State Educational Institution of Higher Professional Education (University) “The Moscow State Tchaikovsky Conservatory” (Russian Federation)
and Dankook University (Republic of Korea)

The purpose of this agreement is to promote cultural understanding, collegiality and academic fellowship between our institutions. Creative collaborative ventures and exchanges will serve our students, faculty and indeed our nations.

General

- I. The parties are convinced that the mutually beneficial collaboration will contribute to the strengthening of cultural ties of both countries and to the building of the new creative environment.
- II. The parties agree that the collaboration will be developed in the following fields:
 1. Education.
 2. Research.
 3. Concerts and Festivals.
 4. Information.

Education

- I. Short-term exchange visits (up to three weeks) between the faculty members of the Moscow State Tchaikovsky Conservatory and Dankook University (possibly bringing their own students) for the purpose of conducting master classes, lectures and concert performances. These performances may combine faculty and students from both schools.
- II. Exchanges of students for studies.

Research

- I. Research and development of collaborative projects.
- II. Scientific encounters (symposia, conferences, seminars etc.).
- III. Collaborative publications.
- IV. Exchange of research for the purpose of studying and developing the musical cultures of both countries.
- V. Exchange of mutually beneficial research.

Concerts and Festivals

- I. Exchange of recitals and organization of combined performances.
- II. Organization of festivals which would include musicians from Russia and Korea, and which would take place in both countries.
- III. Development and realization of long-term projects involving the creative forces of both parties; those may include musical productions, creation and performances of combined orchestras, musical competitions, exhibitions and other cultural and educational activities.

Information

- I. Exchange of information and data.

This agreement is a basis for cultural exchange between the Moscow State Tchaikovsky Conservatory and Dankook University. It does not impose any financial or legal obligations on either party. Actions of the following years in the frame of this agreement, if necessary, will be discussed in additional protocols.

The Agreement is prepared in Russian and English languages in two copies and it began to act from the moment of its signing by both sides.
